VOTING RIGHTS FOR BRITISH CITIZENS ABROAD

The British Consulate-General, Geneva wishes to remind British citizens living abroad of their right to vote at Parliamentary and European Parliamentary elections held in the UK should they satisfy either set of the following conditions :

Set 1

- Your name was previously on the electoral register for an address in the UK;
- You were living in the UK on the qualifying* date for that register;
- There are no more than 20 years between the qualifying dates for that register and the register you now wish to be on.

Set 2

- You last lived in the UK less than 20 years before the qualifying* date for the register you now wish to be on;
- You were too young to be on the electoral register which was based on the last qualifying* date before you left;
- A parent or guardian was on that electoral register, for the address where you were living on that date;
- You are at least 18 years old, or will become 18 when the register you now wish to be on is in force.

* In England, Wales and Scotland the qualifying date is 10 October. This is for the electoral register which comes into force on the following 16 February. It remains in force for all elections for one year. In Northern Ireland the qualifying date is 15 September.

When to register

You must register every year, on or before 10 October (or 15 September if you were previously living in Northern Ireland), to qualify for elections held during the twelve months starting on the following 16 February.

How to register

Information leaflets are available from the cupboard opposite the kiosk at the entrance to Restaurant No. 1 (Building 501). Registration forms can be obtained by sending a stamped addressed envelope to the British Consulate-General, Geneva at the following address :
