INDIVIDUAL PROBLEMS

As part of its constant efforts to protect and defend your interests, a year ago the Association set up an internal board to deal with individual problems.

Its purpose is to study individual cases and work out what is the best way to deal with problems that any of you might bring to its attention.

This year we are making a continued effort to improve the way the board functions; it will therefore deal with problems coming under the following headings:

1. Administrative decisions
2. Job classification and promotions
3. Contract renewals
4. Reclassification or disability
5. Pensions
6. Insurance

The board is headed by Daniel Boimond (PS) and Henri Piney (AT), and an active part in its work will also be played by the Association's nominees on the joint appeals boards, at present Jan Tuyn (TIS) and Daniel Lacarrère (MT).

Jean-Marie Thomas (member of the Association secretariat) will act as secretary, arranging meetings with those with problems that need tackling, preparing the necessary documentation along the lines agreed, and liaising with the board to provide follow-up.

So, if you have a problem which you think needs the support of the Association, please contact its secretarial staff (ext. 2761); the board will then invite you to come (on Wednesday afternoons) and work out together what should be done and how to go about it.

In this way the Association hopes to improve its support for you in helping to solve individual problems under the above headings, which have been on the increase in the past few years.
