Vehicle being transferred to an EU country

After having booked an appointment via e-mail, go to the Ferney-Voltaire customs office.

- Return the original of form 2 (this document must include the authorisation stamps on the reverse)
- Present your TSS (“French card” – special residence permit issued by the Ministry for Europe and Foreign Affairs) and 1 photocopy of both sides
- Present the original carte grise registration document for the vehicle and 1 photocopy of both sides
- Hand in the green plates
- Complete an engagement d’expédition (shipping agreement, form provided by the customs office)

For the issue of a temporary “WW”-type export registration, contact the CERN Installation Service.

Then re-register your vehicle in the country of destination.

Send a copy of the new registration certificate to the customs office via e-mail (or by post) in order to close your file.
